AUDITOR TELLS OF TAX INEQUALITY

Ten Cities and Fifty-Two Counties Add Nothing to Assessment.

AMONG THEM THIS CITY

Moore in His Latest Report Wants Tax Commission to Prepare a Plan for A Special Session.

Richmond, Nov. 25.—In a special report to the General Assembly, made public yesterday, Auditor of Public Accounts C. Lee Moore reviews the efforts made since the last session to enforce a compliance with the tax laws of the State, gives in detail the results of the various grand jury investigations, and and appends as a supplement the tentative plan of segregation of taxes already issued by the Auditor fo the consideration of members of the incoming Legislature.

As a result of the grand jury and supplemental assessments of 1912, there was added to the tax books:

Value tangible personal property, $254,393.

Value intangible personal property, $4,105.197.

Value incomes, $1, 219,552.

Taxes on personal property, $15,-260.74.

Taxes on incomes, $12,195.

Merchants' license taxes, $11,476.-72.

Capitation taxes, $31.50.

Total of taxes added, $38,964.48.

A chart shows in detail which judges summoned grand juries, and gives the additions by counties. In ten cities and six judicial circuits nothing whatever was added, while seventeen other circuit judges managed to get reports only from a portion of the counties in their circuits.

Of the $38,964.48 added to the State income through the efforts of grand juries and supplemental assessments, Richmond paid $14,975.-61, the report indicating that the grand jury investigation here was more complete than at any other point in the State.

Norfolk added nothing to its assessment, and admits having done nothing to aid in the movement. In reply to a notice sent to Judge Allen R. Hanckel, of the Corporation Court of Norfolk, Mr. Moore received a letter from James V. Trehy, clerk, saying: "Officially, I am able to advise that our records show no action taken by the grand jury in the matter referred to in your circular."

There were no additions to the tax lists in the following ten cities, as shown by Auditor Moore's report:

Alexandria, Judge Louis C. Barley.

Charlottesville, Judge A. D. Dabney.

Clifton Forge, Judge George K. Anderson.

Lynchburg, Judge Frank P. Christian.

Newport News, Judge J. T. Barham.

Norfolk city, Judge A. R. Hanckel.

Petersburg, Judge J. M. Mullen.

Portsmouth, Judge Kenneth M. Bain.

Staunton, Judge R. S. Ker.

Suffolk, Judge J. L. Mc Lemore.

The following circuit judges made no additions to the tax list in their circuits during the year, according to the report:

Judge Jesse F. West, Third Circuit—Prince George, Surry, Sussex, Greenville and Brunswick counties.

Judge E. J. Harvey, Seventh Circuit—Pittsylvania, Henry and Patrick county.

Judge C. W. Robinson, Eleventh Circuit—Elizabeth city county.

Judge H. A. W. Skeen, Twenty-fourth Circuit—Lee, Wise and Dickerson counties.

Judge William E. Burns, Twenty-seventh Circuit—Buchanan, Russell and Scott counties.

Judge James H. Fletcher, Jr., Thirty-first Circuit—Accomac and Northampton.

The following judges had special grand juries and reported additional assessments in some of the counties in their circuits, but made no additions to the tax lists in the following counties:

Judge J. L. LeHew, Second Circuit, Southampton county and city of Suffolk.

Judge R. G. Southall, Fourth Circuit, Amelia and Powhatan.

Judge G. J. Hundley, Fifth Circuit, Cumberland, Charlotte and Buckingham.

Judge W. R. Barksdale, Sixth Circuit, Lunenburg.

Judge J. M. White, Eighth Circuit, Madison and Greene.

Judge T. R. B. Wright, Twelfth Circuit, Lancaster and Essex.

Judge Claggett B. Jones, Thirteenth Circuit, Mathews, King and Queen, King William and Middlesex.

Judge R. H. L. Chichester, Fifteenth Circuit, King George, Spotsylvania, Caroline.

Judge J. B. T. Thornton, Sixteenth Circuit, Fairfax.

Judge T. W. Harrison, Seventeenth Circuit, Frederick, Warren, Shenandoah.

Judge H. W. Holt, Eighteenth Circuit, Augusta, Highland.

Judge George K. Anderson, Nineteenth Circuit, Craig, Botetourt and city of Clifton Forge.

Judge W. W. Moffit, Twentieth Circuit, Roanoke and Floyd.

Judge A. A. Campbell, Twenty-first Circuit, Carroll, Wythe, Grayson.

Judge Fulton Kegley, Twenty-second Circuit, Tazewell.

Judge F. B. Hutton, Twenty-third Circuit, Smyth.

Judge B. T. Gordon, Twenty-ninth Circuit, Nelson and Fluvanna.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Dr. William B. Craig, president of the Indiana Veterinary College, will be placed on trial at Shelbyville, Ind., Friday for the murder of Dr. Helen Knabe, who was one of the most prominent women in Indiana. On the morning of October 24, 1911, Dr. Knabe was found dead in her apartment, with a deep wound in her throat. Friends of the woman induced the local Council of Women of Indianapolis to raise a fund, and Harry C. Webster, a private detective, was employed, worked for nearly a year on the case, and in December, 1912, presented before the grand jury information on which the indictment against Dr. Craig was based. A. M. Ragsdale, an undertaker, also was indicted as an accessory after the fact.

E. L. Ellington and H. C. Kelly, both second lieutenants in the aviation corps of the army, were killed yesterday at San Diego, Cal., during a flight, when their machine crashed to earth from a height of eighty feet. The men lost control of the machine apparently through some defect in the machinery and it careened and fell during a flight from the military aerodrome When the aeroplane struck the earth the gasoline tank burst and the wreckage as drenched. The debris caught fire but the bodies were rescued before being touched by the flames. The machine was destroyed.

Learning from the policemen who called at their home, that her engagement ring was a part of the $3,500 stolen from guests at the Chicago Beach Hotel within the last ten weeks, Miss Alma Anderson was forced to turn the circlet over to the Chicago authorities in the presence of a group of girl friends who had gathered to congratulate her. The ring was given Miss Anderson several weeks ago by Joseph Temm, an electrician for the hotel, and the wedding had been set for early in December.

President Wilson's annual message, which will be read to Congress was finished today but just when it will be delivered will depend upon the convenience of both houses in arranging a joint session. Hitherto the President's message has been read the day after the convening of Congress. It is expected that the President will dwell considerably on the need for early action on the currency bill and that he will develop in a general way, the attitude of the administration toward trust legislation leaving to the Congressional committee the task of writing specific remedies. He wil also refer to the Mexican situation.

BYRD PREDICTS EQUAL SUFFRAGE

Speaker of House of Delegates Says Legislature Will Yield.

WOMEN DESIRABLE.

J. H. Braly, Suffrage Leader, Tells People of Richmond What Movement Has Accomplished.

Richmond, Nov. 25.—"The proposed equal suffrage amendment to the Constitution of Virginia will pass the General Assembly in 1916," declared Richard Evelyn Byrd, last night at a dinner in the Richmond Hotel, given by the Equal Suffrage League of Virginia to J. H. Braly, of Pasadena, Cal., president of the California Men's Equal Suffrage League. This optismistic sentiment was repeated by Hill Montague, father of the equal suffrage bill in the 1912 Legislature, who ventured the opinion that Republican, democratic and Progressive parties will have equal suffrage planks in their 1916 national platforms.

"The addition of the women to the body politic in Virginia is in many ways desirable," said Mr. Byrd. "I do not look for the granting of equal suffrage to be followed by any startling changes. The present equality of men and women in Virginia will permit of equal suffrage without any considerable dislocation of our system."

Vigorous defense of the manner in which the California women have exercised suffrage since the right to vote was given them was made by Mr. Braly.

"The women of California have done more with the vote in two years than reasonable men and women had expected of them," said he. "In recent elections the women outvoted the men in every case, making fewer mistakes and using their suffrage more intelligently."

"Only seventy-two out of every 125 qualified male votes in California exercise their right of suffrage, while sixty-six of 100 qualified women voters actually use their ballot. These are uncontrovertible facts.

"You hear a lot about the potency of women's sweet, silent influence over the male voter. In California experience has shown us that it is women's sweet, silent influence plus the ballot that wins reforms. They say women cannot fight. Let me tell you that the ballot is mightier than the bullet. Give her the ballot and see how she can fight."

According to Mr. Braly, two years after the women of California were politically emancipated they forced the Legislature of that State to enact many remarkable reform statutes. Among them were a bill to raise the age of consent to eighteen, equal guardianship, compensation of mothers, and a minimum wage for women.

The California woman's attitude on the liquor question has been everywhere three to one for prohibition, said he.

Dr. D. A. Kuyk, speaking on the social service side of the fight, said that the social evil is today more vicious, more widespread and more dangerous than ever before. The help of women is needed, he said, to remedy conditions.

PRESIDENT EMERSON ILL.

Head of the Atlantic Coast Line Rushed to His Home.

Waycross, Ga., Nov. 25.—Desperately ill from what is said to be acute indigestion, President T. M. Emerson, of the Attaltic Coast Line, was placed on board a special train here last night and taken to his home at Wilmington, N. C.

Mr. Emerson was accompanied by a physician and a trained nurse.

While it is admitted that President Emerson is extremely ill, the physicians believe that he will recover if no complicatons are caused by the trip to Wilmington. It is understood that the physicians objected to the trip, but that President Emerson insisted on being taken to his home as speedily as possible.

SHOULD PROVE A WARNING.

Negro Commits Perjury to Escape Payment of Debt.

In police court this morning, Henry Vaughan, colored, a fireman on the Southern Railway, was sentenced to jail for 60 days for perjury. The man was recently sued before Justice of the Peace Sipple, and judgment secured against him for $20.79. When the execution was issued the man escaped payment by swearing to the fact that his earnings were less than $50 per month. Testimony was introduced to show that the man really made $60 to $80 per month.

The above might be read with interest by certain persons of both races who, in order to escape their liabilities allege that they are heads of fmafilies and that their incomes do not exceed fifty dollars per month. Generally no attempts are made by the victims to disprove the assertions of such delinquents. There is reason to believe that in some cases men who could earn more than $50 per month manage to keep enough blue Mondays or other days in order that their wages may not exceed that amount.

RAILROAD'S PLEA.

Interstate Commerce Commission Begins Investigation of Proposed Schedule of Traffic Charges.

The Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday began the formal investigation into the proposed increase of 5 per cent in freight rates in the territory east of the Mississippi river and north of the Ohio and Potomac rivers. This is regarded as the most important inquiry ever undertaken.

At the conclusion of the first day's hearing it was apparent that the fifty-two carriers involved had profited by the turning down of their application to increase freight rates three years ago, and, having made a searching examination into their own affairs, were prepared to give the Federal authorities what they believe is incontrovertible evidence that the railroads must have the increases.

President Willard, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, opened the argument on behalf of the railroads The commission listened with the closest attention to the facts which he presented in support of the contention that the roads must have additional evenues to meet expenses and make needed improvements. Mr. Willard startled the commission by intimating broadly that the railroads must have relief or else the government would have to take them and run them..

All the roads east of the Mississippi and north of the Ohio and Potomac rivers have entered appeals, though if the increase asked for is allowed, all the railroads in the country would ultimately be affected.

The roads ask an increase of 5 per cent, in freight rates, the passenger, express and other rates being generally fixed by law and not subject to an advance.

The roads urge that the net earnings of the railroads have steadily decreased, while the expenditures have gone up, the decline in earnings during the past three years being put at $16,311,521, notwithstanding an investment of more than $600,-000,000, of additional capital.

Operation of "full crew" and other laws which make the handling of traffic more expensive and increased pay of employes is suggested.

Woman Murdered.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 24.—The vicinity of First and Marshall streets was thrown into excitement about 2.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when a negro woman was found murdered in the alley off irst street, running east and west north of Marshall and south of Clay street.

The woman's name was Lulu Rogers. She was employed as a cook by Mrs. A. L. Van Pelt, at 16, East Marshall street.

Her husband, James Rogers, had been on bad terms with the woman for some time, and yesterday morning he called at the Van Pelt home and indulged in a bitter quarrel wth his wife.

The police have the names of several witnesses who declare that they saw Rogers shoot his wife in the alley.

Rogers disappeared immediately after the shooting.

WEDDING BELLS AT THE WHITE HOUSE

Sunshine and Crisp Weather Greet The Merry Party Today.

MANSION IS THRONGED

Notable Gathering in East Room—Marine Band Discourses Music on Joyful Occasion.

Washington, Nov. 25.—With even the smallest of details worked out to a nicety; with a bright sun beating down upon the White House grounds; with the East Room, where the ceremony is taking place, lavishly decorated, and practically all the guests in Washington at the executive mansion, everything is proceeding to the satisfaction of all this afternoon, while Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson, second daughter of the President and Mrs. Wilson is being united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Francis Bowes Sayre.

Early rising was the order at the White House this morning and the members of the family, including the bride, breakfasted at 9 o'clock, and all morning a stream of motor cars and carriages bearing relatives of the bride and bridegroom began arriving at the executive mansion.

The bride spent the morning seeing to the final arranging of the trunks which will be sent to the Union station at six o'clock. The destination of the bridal couple, however, remains a mystery.

Among the latest gifts to arrive is the gift from the President and Mrs. Wilson. They selected a handsome mahogany dining room set yesterday afternoon at one of the local stores and it will be shipped to Williamstown within a day or two.

Miss Jessie Wilson wears the diamond brooch which is suspended from a delicate platinum chain, her bridal gift from Mr. Sayre, for the first time at the wedding.

Constant rumors are afloat to the effect that the honeymoon trip will include a trip to Bermuda and Florida.

TO BE GIVEN HEARING FRIDAY.

Negroes Charged With Sending Black Hand Letter in Fauquier County.

Charles Times and Edward Black, both colored, who are charged with sending a letter to T. A. Maddux at Marshall, Fauquier county, ordering the recipient to place $500 under a gate under the penalty of having his house burned should he fail to meet the demand, and who were arrested by Deputy U. S. Marshal Schoeni, were arraigned before Commissioner Garnet in this city yesterday afternoon. They had their case continued until Friday and were sent to jail.

POSES AS "SEPTEMBER MORN."

Nude Man at Grand Central Terminal Mistaken For Statue.

New York, Nov. 25.—A man who says he is Mate Tanos, of Woodbridge, N. J., created great excitement at the Grand Central terminal yesterday morning when he posed as "September Morn," clad in a cherry smile. He was sent to the psychopathic ward in Bellevue.

The man was seen posing in the balcony which runs around the waiting room.

"That's some art," one man declared. "I don't like nude work generally, but it sure is lifelike."

"Judging from the way the statue is muscled, I guess it must be a figure of Hercules. I never saw a statue of him, however, without clothing," replied another.

The two stopped to admire the figure and others joined them. Many women were admiring the work when the statue moved. There were shrieks and women ran out of the waiting room. Spazial policemen went to the balcony and arrested the man. He objected to dressing before entering the ambulance.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

James T. Patterson qualified today in the Corporation Court as Justice of the Peace from the Second ward.

There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of Elks last night, when final plans were made for tonight's entertainment which will be held in the home on Prince street. The dance will commence at 8:30 in the auditorium, to be followed by the cabaret show.

MAY VISIT RICHMOND.

President Accepts Invitation From Bible Society.

Washington, Nov. 25. — Accompanied by Representative Monague, Mr. James Caskie and the Rev. Russell Cecil, of Richmond, yesterday called at the White House and extended an invitation to President Wilson to address the centennial celebration of the Richmond Bible Society to be held in Richmond.

The President informed his callers that he would like very much attend and that if a convenient date was fixed for the assembly, he would endeavors to be there.

DEATH OF MAJ. E. WILKES.

Confederate Veteran a Victim of Automobile Accident.

Major Edmund Wilkes, son of the late Admiral Wilkes and prominent in the civil war as director of railroads for the Confederacy in Virginia and North Carolina, died yesterday in the Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, as the result of injuries received in an automobile accident on the evening of September 22.

Major Wilkes was 82 years old. He was not severely injured in the accident, but the shock caused the illness which resulted in his death.

According to the police report, the accident took place at about 7:30 p. m., September 22, an automobile dirven and owned by John Dolph, of 5303 Colorado avenue, colliding with a machine containing Major Wilkes and Howard D. Styer, of 812 Connecticut avenue, at Seventeenth and H streets northwest.

Major Wilkes, suffering from lacerations, bruises, and shock, was taken to the Emergency Hospital, in Dolph's machine.

Major Wilkes, after the civil war, took up his residence in Utah, where he engaged in railroad construction. He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. H. D. Styer, wife of Lieut. Col. Styer, of the War College; his son, Chas. Wilkes, living in Utah, and a sister, Miss Jane Wilkes, of this city.

BLOWN OFF BUILDING.

Man Plunges Headfist into an Apple Tree While Scantlings Break Fall of Second.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 25.—The navy yard at League Island was visited by a severe wind storm yesterday afternoon which blew two workmen off the new barracks building, ripped up the roofs of several frame buildings and did other serious damage. The storm was accompanied by a flurry of snow, which turned into a drizzle of rain.

The two men who were injured are John Schultz, of National Park, N. J., and Phillip Liptake, of Thirteenth and Callowhill streets. Both are structural iron workers and were at work on the steel girders on the top of the building when the storm came up.

MOTHER SEES BOY KILLED.

Crushed by Heavy Vehicle in Front of His Home When Children Frighten Horse.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 25.—Crushed under the wheels of a heavy milk wagon, 5 year-old Jose Luca was instantly killed last night in front of his home, at No. 936 Annin St. The child's mother witnessed the accident from a window and ran shrieking to the street and gathered the boy in her arms. When she failed to revive him, she fell in a faint. The child's body was taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital, where physicians said death had been instantaneous.

M. Carbon, a French aviator, was killed yesterday at Chantilly, France, when he fell with his monoplane.

FEDERALS ATTACKED.

Eight Hundred Killed at Monterey—Refugees Say American Property Was Respected.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Rear Admiral Fletcher on the Rhode Island, is en route to Tuxpam with orders to land marine to protect British oil plants on the slightest provocation.

General Villa's army of constitutionalsts in Juarez is engaged in battle with the federals. They were attacked from three directions.

Reports in Mexico City were that John Lind had become dissatisfied with the situation and was ready to leave Vera Cruz. That Americans and other foreigners do not expect the United States to act was demonstrated by the return of hundreds from Vera Cruz to Mexico City.

Laredo, Texas, Nov. 25.—Deplorable conditions and a total loss of life approximating 850, with hundreds wounded during the recent constitutional attack on Monterey, were reported here by 50 American refugees, who reached the border on the first train from Monterey in six weeks.

There is an undercurrent of anti-American feeling, but no Americans have been molested at either of the three points from which they came, the Americans said.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Man and Woman Swallow Bichloride of Mercury.

Baltimore, Nov. 25.—Having written four farewell letters, including one 'our last wish—bury us together," and taken bichloride of mercury tablets in a suicide pact, Edwin Kaiser, a married man, aged 21, and Margaret Reidel, aged 18, are in a serious condition at University Hospital. They are both expected to recover.

The man may be held on a white slave charge. He left a note to his parents, in which he instucted that his wife be not allowed at his funeral, as he "cared no more for her than a pack of cigarettes."

In her note to her father, the girl asked "Please do not blame the man I am with."

They had taken a room at 508 West Fayette street, telling the landlady they were married and would stay a week. An hour later a patrolman saw Kaiser call a taxicab and help the woman into it. The patrolman drove with them to the hospital.

The police say Kaiser told them he and the girl had visited Newport News and Richmond, Va., before coming to Baltimore.

At the hospital the girl told a physician Kaiser had violated the pact by not swallowing the poison. Kaiser, however, said this was not true, and claims that he took the mercury.

Mrs. Annie M. Kaiser, wife of the man, is living with her mother, Mrs. Sarah O'Loughlin, at 1020 Briscoe street, south Baltimore, and has been separated from her husband since last July.

Aged Man on Trial for Murder.

Staunton, Va., Nov. 25.—The trial of Charles Donaghe, an old man, for the murder of his aged sister, Rebecca, at their home, near Paranassus, in Augusta County, on June 3, began yesterday in the Circuit Court.

A jury was secured and much of the evidence was submitted. The evidence did little toward fixing the crime on Donaghe, who protests his innocence.

ARTICLES ARE IDENTIFIED

Many People Visit Station House and Inspect Goods Recently Captured By the Police

Police headquarters looked very much like a junk store today. All of the goods which were taken from the saloon of George S. Finch by police officers, Pinkerton men, and railway special agents, following three raids, were placed on exhibition today in order to give the people an opportunity to identify any goods which might have been stolen.

The loot consisted of cigars, cigarettes, general merchandise, railway tools, carpenters tools, hydraulic jacks and a large assortment of small articles.

Many people visited the police station today and looked over the assortment and a number of articles were identified. The four prisoners arrested on a charge of having stolen goods in their possession are still confined in the city jail as they have been unable to give the bail which has been named by Judge L. C. Barley, of the Corporation Court.

DWELLING HOUSE BURNS.

Lamp Explodes in Home of Colored Woman—Narrow Escape of Inmates.

At 2:15 o'clock this morning a house on the north side side of Princess street, between Royal and Pitt, owned and occupied by Delia Bowen, colored, was found to be burning. The flames had gained such headway that virtually nothing could be saved, while the inmates of the house had narrow escapes from cremation.

The woman and her daughter Julia have been sleeping on the first floor of the house, and a colored man named Haywood, who has been lodging with the couple, occupied an upstairs room.

Last night, as has been their custom, Delia and her daughter went to bed leaving a coal oil lamp burning. This exploded while the inmates of the house were asleep, and the smoke ascending into the upper room awakened Haywood, who aroused the sleeping couple and managed to get them out of the burning room. It was, however, impossible to save any of the contents except a trunk.

The fire burned furiously, and by the time the department reached the scene it had gained too much headway to be arrested, and the firemen had about all they could do to confine the fire and save adjoining property from damage or destruction.

The house was insured. This is not the first serious experience the Bowen woman has had with fire. While she was living in Maryland years ago, the house she occupied caught fire and two of her children and her sister were burned to death.

YOUNG MEN TO ENTERTAIN.

ORDINANCES PREPARED

Ways and Means for Erecting New High School and Truck House

Ordinances providing for a loan of $50,000 with which to erect a new high school building and a new home for the Relief Hook and Ladder Co., have been prepared by Corporation Attorney Samuel P. Fisher and will be presented to City Council which will hold its meeting tonight. It is expected that a large number of citizens will be present to hear the proceedings, as many people are interested in seeing that Alexandria has a modern high school building and a new truck house.

The ordinances provide for the borrowing of the money at five per cent interest. Ten notes of $5,000 each are to be sold, one payable each year. Provision is to be made for the payment of the notes and interest from the current receipts of the city. The proceeds of the notes are to be used as follows: $36,000 for the erection and furnishing of the new high school; $3,500 for the purchase of a lot at Cameron and West street adjoining, the seven acres owned by the city and $10,000 for the truck house. The latter will be erected on Prince street, near the corner of Royal, and plans have already been prepared under the direction of City Engineer Dunn.

A decision has not been reached as yet as to the location of the school building. The council is almost evenly divided, one-half of the members wishing to erect the building on the lot at Cameron and West street, the greater part of which is outside of the city limits and the other half favors a more central location. The question of site will be debated tonight and unless it is settled may hold up the entire proposition.

SUPPER FOR COLORED CHURCH.

The supper served last night in the Catholic Hall (colored,) corner Wilkes and Royal streets, was greatly enjoyed by the many who thronged the rooms of that buildng. The supper is being given for the purpose of raising funds to be used in erecting a colored Catholic Church in this city. The ground has already been purchased for the site and the project is meeting with great success, much to the delight of the white friends of colored Catholics. The supper will be served again tonight and tomorrow night. Rev. Father Hannigan will be present.

FREE CIGARETTE HOLDERS.

Notice those nifty, new German cigarette holders? They're all the rage abroad, and the American Tobacco Company has imported them now for American smokers. You can get one free with every package of Omar cigarettes while the supply lasts.

They are certainly handsome and useful. The bit or mouth-piece is made of hard rubber; the rest is of highly polished German silver. It is light as a feather, but will last indefinitely; and it gives the user a smart, dressy appearance. Even if you have never used a holder before, you will appreciate the new Omar holder.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

LET ROBBERS ESCAPE.

Make Second Attempt Within Two Weeks to Blow Postoffice Safe.

Danville, Va., Nov. 25.—For the second time within two weeks an attempt was made to rob the safe of the Schoolfield postoffice within the early hours of Sunday morning, but the robbers appear to have been frightened away after preparing to blow the iron receptacle.

A number of registered letters were broken open and their contents taken by a member of the gang, whose escape was easily accomplished.

G. H. Murrill, a mill night watchman, saw lights burning in the post office building at 5 o'clcok. He approached an open window and saw a young man tearing open letters. A he wached he heard a whistle Murrill ran for assistance of two other watchmen, who arrived just as the man came out of the window.

Just exactly why the trio failed to stop the man has not been explained.

WOMAN MURDERED.

Alleged She Was Stabbed to Death in a Fight.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Nov. 25.—Discovery of the dead body of Mrs. Luther Banks on the street car tracks here, with a fatal stab wound in her heart, revealed a murder. The local police have arrested Mrs. Nellie F. Spinello, Veda Clark, Gretha Lewis, Elizabeth Harris, Strick Jackson, and Samuel Horns, pending investigation.

Three of those who are under arrest are said to have narrated events leading to the stabbing. According to the police, the three say all of those under arrest were with the dead woman at the home of T. C. Clark, where a fight occurred, and in the mix-up the Banks woman received a fatal wound and was taken out and placed on the street car tracks.

The body was discovered by a motorman on a car, who reversed the power and prevented the car from running over the body.

VIRGINIA COUPLE ELOPE.

H. D.s Hocutt and Miss S. Clingenpell, of Roanoke, Married in Washington.

The National Park Seminary, of Woodside, Md., is lacking one of its women employes this morning, and Herbert D. Hocutt, superintendent of highway construction for Roanoke county, Va., has a bride as the result of an elopement yesterday afternoon, that had all of the essentials of up-to-date elopements, even the automobile. There are the irate parents, too.

The name of the bride was Miss Susie C. Clingenpell. Both Mr. Hocutt and she are from Roanoke, Va., and the romance dates back to school days. Mr. Hocutt went to Washington Sunday, communicated with Miss Clingenpell, who went to that city yesterday by automobile. They were married by the Rev. William M. Lyons, progressive Dunkerd, and left last night for Roanoke.

Mrs. Patrick Seeley, aged 41, was burned to death last night by the explosion of a lamp in her home in Wilmington, Del. She was alone.

GEROGE C. WILDE STRICKEN.

Veteran Newspaper Man Falls on the Street in Richmond.

George C. Wilde, probably the oldest newspaper man in the State of Virginia, was suddenly stricken while standing in front of the Mutual building in East Main street, Richmond, yesterday. He was removed to the city home in an ambulance. Mr. Wilde, who entered the octogenarian period several years ago, has been a familiar figure in and about Richmond for many years.

While yet a boy, Wilde listened to the great speech of Daniel Webster, in 1840.

Wilde served on the Richmond Examiner, a local newspaper, with Gen. Roger A. Pryor, of the Confederate army, later a New York jurist; he also served as news editor of the State, a Richmond afternoon paper, at the same time that Richard F. Beorne, who fought a duel with Wlam C. Elam, wrote polities for the same sheet.

Wilde was clerk under "Old Joe Mayo," at a time when Mayo was mayor of the City of Richmond and was among the pioneers who carried picks and shovels into California in the halcyon days of '49.

Mr. Wilde for years was a familiar figure in Alexandria. At the close of the civil war he came to Alexandria from Richmond and became editor of the Virginia State Journal, then published by Cowing & Gillis in the building now used by the Relief Hook and Ladder Company, on Prince street, near Royal. He later was employed on the Alexandria Gazette and during the early seventies was city editor of the Virginia Sentinel published by the late M. D. Ball.

Mr. Wilde returned to Richmond about forty years ago, but made visits to Alexandria he generally being one of the grand jury of the United States District Court. On such occasions he always called at the Gazette office where he was heartily welcome by his former associates.

Mr. Wilde had long been as a lone tree in a clearing. The Pollards, Daniel Ritchie, the Smiths and others who were his cotemporaries of ante bellum days having long since paid the debt of nature.

MARRIED IN LURAY CAVERN.

W. A. Collins and Miss Huffman Wed 100 Feet Below Surface.

Luray, Va., Nov. 25.—Traveling 54 miles, 20 of them driven over a rough mountain road, William A. Collins and Miss Arline Huffman, of Greene county, were married in the ball room of the Luray Caverns Sunday night. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George F. Cook, of Main street Baptist Church.

The marriage took place more than 100 feet below the earth's surface and in a portion of the cave where 18 like events have been solemnied. The attendants were Miss Katherine Northcott, daughter of T. C. Northcott, owner of the caverns, and C. C. Logan, assistant manager of the Caverns Corporation.

For the very best oysters served in all styles go to Rammel's Cafe.

BROTHERS ACCUSE HER.

Miss Goodman Charged With Shooting Father While he Slept.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 25.—Miss Rosa Goodman, daughter of Solomon Goodman, a merchant of Portsmouth, is accused of shooting her father in the head while he slept.

The shooting occurred last Friday at midnight. As a result of the injury he received Goodman may lose the sight of one eye. The daughter, a decided pretty bunette, says no one but her two brothers believes she shot her father.

"They dislike me," she says, "and have preferred this false charge against me."

"I did not shoot my father. 'Dad does not believe that it was I who attempted to take his life. He is terribly worried over my arrest. He believes me innocent and I do not care much what others believe."

Miss Goodman explained how she came in possession of the pistol which she had in her room. She said that most of her life has been spent with her aunt, who lives at a hotel in Norfolk.

"Often it is as much as two or three weeks before I come here to see my people," she said.

"When I came over last week I was told that attempts had been made to rob our home. My room is directly in the rear of house overlooking a shed. I was told that it was upon this shed that a negro robber was seen by my brother Moe trying to break into the house through a window leading to my room. Fearing that another attempt would be made, I went to Harry Bord's place and asked him to lend me a pistol.

"I explained to him why I wished to borrow it and he let me have it. I carried the gun to my room and placed it under the mattress of my bed, where it remained until after the shooting. I then turned it over to my brother Jim, who gave it to the police."

DEATH OF DR. TREVILLIAN.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 25.—After being in declining health a long time Dr. John Guerrant Trevillian, 78 years old, a widely known Confederate veteran, for many years a successful physician, and chief surgeon, of the City Home died yesterday at his home 316 South Third street.

He was born in Goochland county, April 1, 1840, the son of Col. John May and Mary (Argyle) Trevillian. His father was of English descent, the family having been connected with Virginia since the early part of the seventeenth century.

During the war between the states he was commissioned assistant surgeon in the Confederate Hospital service. He was later commissioned surgeon in charge of the hospitals at Warrenton and Wnchester, and afterwards was made chief surgeon in General Lewis Armistead's brigade of Pickett's Division, Army of Northern Virginia, remaining with the command through all of its engagement including the battle of Gettysburg until the close of the war.

WEDDING IN THE WHITE HOUSE.

While the Gazette is being perused this afternoon the nuptials of Miss Jessie Wilson, daughter of President and Mrs. Wilson, will be in progress in the East Room of the White House in Washington, The groom Mr. Francis B. Sayre, and his prospective bride spent the last day of their single blessedness yesterday in the preparations for today's ceremonies. In the afternoon there was a wedding rehearsal, and long before the appointed hour, 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, everything was in readiness for the service to be performed by Dr. Sylvester Beach, the Princeton Presbyterian minister.

The happy pair will be among the few who have plighted their troth in the White House, and the people of the entire country mingle their good wishes and prayers for the full fruition of the joyful hopes of the contracting couple.

Happy they! Oh! the happiest of their kind!
Whom gentle stars unite, in one fate
Their hearts, their fortunes, and their beings blend."

And let us hope that it will be so with Miss Jessie Wilson and Mr Francis B. Sayre, and that they may become and remain as two souls with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one.

This is the thirteenth couple who have taken their nuptial vows in the White House. This fact might annoy some who have a dread of this number, but the good sense of the contracting couple will, of course, regard such superstition as did Cato when he said he never understood how two ancient augurs could look each other in the face without laughing.

Grecian mythology tells us of Pygmalion and his Galatea and Orpheus and his Eurydice, while the story of the Prince in the Arabian Nights entertainments who had been made a Croesus by the geni was given a statue for his last present, which proved to be a loving and noble woman standing upon a pedestal. The recipient realized that this was the greatest gift of all. We doubt not that the groom today will gaze upon his bride with equal appreciation.

We read of the Holy One of Israel mingling with a bridal party in Cana of Galilee. While not being present visibly in the East Room of the White House this afternoon, let us all hope

The Gods will look down
And on this couple drop a crown.

Church Tries 'Movies.'

New York, Nov. 25.—The Rev. Dr. George Drew Egbert, pastor of the fashionable First Congregational Church of Flushing, made a practical test to forestall an apparent decrease in church attendance by holding the first of a series of moving picture vesper services.

The films of a Bible story of a queen who remembered her own people when she became wife of the king. Hymns were thrown on the screen between the pictures, and everybody joined in the singing.

Bride-Elect Jilted at Altar.

New York, Nov. 25.—Miss Eleanor Hoare, of Williamsburg, a prospective bride, who was jilted by John McCann, her fiance, at St. Ambrose Catholic Church on her wedding night, is suffering from nervous prostration at her home.

A telegram was received at the church saying: "Postpone the wedding; have been called out of the city.

McCann's whereabouts is a mystery.

RESIGNED POSITIONS.

Superintendent and Safety Board President Leave When Mutineers are Acquitted.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 25.—Superintendent of Police Martin Hyland and William E. Davis, president of the board of safety resigned when 31 policemen charged with insubordination were acquitted by the Board of Safety. The patrolmen were alleged to have refused to ride on street cars of the street railway here a few weeks ago.

After the policemen had been acquitted Mayor Shank addressed them and said he did not blame them for refusing to ride on the street cars to protect the strike-breakers. He declared that if the threatened teamsters' strike is called he did not wish the patrolmen to ride upon the wagons to protect strike-breakers.

BE JEALOUS OF THE BEAUTY OF YOUR HAIR.

In other words, be careful of it. The beauty of your hair depends upon its health. If it's beautiful, it's healthy. To make it glossy, bright, silky-soft—to make it fall more easily into the graceful, wavy folds of the coiffure—to make it stay where you put it—use Harmony Hair Beautifier. This dainty liquid dressing is just what it is named, a beautifier. If your hair is beautiful now, use it to make it even more so, and to preserve its liveliness. If it is not beautiful now, Harmony Hair Beautifier will improve its appearance in a way to please you, or money back. Its rose fragrance will overcome the oily smell of your hair. Easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. Contains no oil; will not change color of hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Hair Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick, thorough cleansing. Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness; just a sweet cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00, Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony Laboratories in Boston, where the many celebrated Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made. Wm. P. Taylor, 616 King street, Alexandria, Va.

James K. McGuire, former mayor of Syracuse, N. Y., and partner with his brother, George H. McGuire, in the business of bonding state highway contractors, was indicted yesterday on the charge of soliciting a campaign contribution from a corporation. A bench warrant was issued for his arrest. The offense is punishable by one year in the penitentiary and a fine of not more than $1,000. The whereabouts of McGuire are not known.

Delegates of the I. W. W., made formal demand on the ribbon manufactures of Paterson, N. J., yesterday for a nine hour day for weavers, threatening a strike. They said this walk-out would take place December 1 if the demand was not granted. Samuel Holaman, president of the Manufacturers' Association, said the demand would be ignored.

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA

At the first November rules, 1913 at the Clerk's Office of the said Court, at Alexandria, Virginia.

United States of America to the use of Robert J. Kennedy, Vt. Plaintiff, Arthur Cowsill and the Pacific Coast Casualty Company, a Corporation, Defendants.

Upon application of the plaintiff, it is ordered that all creditors of Arthur Cowsill who have furnished labor or materials to said defendant in connection with the construction of buildings and tanks for wireless telegraph station at United States reservation, at Arlington, Va., for which final settlement by the United States was made December 28, 1912, as set out in the declaration filed in the above cause, be, and they are hereby made parties to this suit, and that they be, and they hereby are, required to file their intervening petition rerein as required by statute.

The object of this suit is to obtain a judgment against the defendants upon the bond given by them to the United States of America to secure the performance of the contract for the buildings and tanks for the wireless telegraph station at the United States Reservation, at Arlington, Virginia, and the prompt payment to all persons supplying labor and materials in the prosecution of said work in the penal sum of twenty one thousand dollars ($21,000.)

And it is further ordered that in order to give notice to such creditors, if there are any, of their right to intervene in this cause, the above order shall be published in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper of general circulation published in Alexandria, Virginia, for three successive weeks, the last publication to be at least three months before the first of March, 1914, rules to be held in the Clerk's office of the Said Court on the first Monday in March, 1914, which is limited as the time when creditors hereby made parties to this suit shall file their claims.

Witness the Honorable Edmund Waddill, Jr., Judge of the District Court of the United States, this 3rd day of November, 1913, and in the one hundred and thirty-seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America.

November 3, 1913.

The Light to Study By

Children should never study under a poor light—it strains the eyes and the ill effects may be permanent.

The best lamp for study is the Rayo—its light is soft, clear and steady—you can use it for hours at a time without hurting your eyes in the least.

The Rayo lamp is strong, attractive and durable. Can be lighted without removing chimney or shade—easy to rewick.

The Rayo costs little, but you can't buy better at any price.

Your dealer keeps the Rayo—ask to see it.

Face-to-Face Courtesy

Good telephone service depends upon mutual courtesy. The telephone is more useful to those who talk as though face to face, for civility removes difficulties, and facilitates the promptest possible connections.

The operators must be patient and polite under all circumstances, but they will do better work if they meet patience and politeness on the part of telephone users.

FIGHT AT A WEDDING.

Unsuccessful Suitor Interrupts Ceremony in Sensational Manner.

Canton, Ohio, Nov. 25.—This is the story of a young Lochinvar who came out of the West just in time to see his sweetheart made the wife of another. He punched the bridegroom and landed in jail.

This Lochinvar is Joe Baker. He had been courting Anna Vanak and had her promise to marry him. So sure was he that he got a license. Then he told her to wait a few months while he went West to earn funds.

While Baker was getting the funds Tony Bobrok met Anna. He proposed and was accepted. The wedding was on and the ceremony was in progress when Baker arrived. The wedding guests stepped aside.

Silently he walked to the bridegroom and delivereda hard blow on the jaw.

The police did the rest.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Nearly 1,000 workmen in the locomotive department of the Mount Clare shops of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, in Baltimore, have been laid off. The men were informed last Saturday that the force would have to be cut in this department. That the men were discharged was denied emphatically by the superintendent of the shops. He said the men were laid off until the first of the month, when repair work will be resumed.

Hundreds of shoppers were panic-stricken by a double shooting at Twenty-second street and Sixth avenue, New York, yesterday, when John L. Mathews shot at Mrs. Minnie Helmrich, then turned the revolver upon himself. Mrs. Helmrich, who was accompanied by her son, swooned, and the son, thinking his mother had been killed, had to be prevented by a policeman from attacking Mathew's body. The son told the police that Mathews was enraged because Mrs. Helmrich, who is a widow, refused to marry him.

STRENGTH FOR OLD PEOPLE.

Old people, to overcome the weakening, debilitated effects of increasing old age, often makes very sad mistake in using so called "remedies" that contain alcohol and dangerous or habit-forming drugs. Often this stuff, because it livens and brightens them up a little just after taking a dose, leads them to imagine that it is doing them good, when it isn't. Remedies that rely on their sale on such deceit do harm, because the false excitement of the nerves and heart leaves them worse than they were before.

Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion is a real medicine—a splendid body and strength-builder, especially good for old people, because it furnishes to the system ingredients necessary to rebuild wasted tissues, strengthen the nerves, gives new energy and a younger and livelier feeling to the body. It doesn't contain a drop of alcohol nor any dangerous drug. It may not make you feel better after the first dose nor perhaps for several days. But if you don't feel much better and stronger before you have taken a quarter as much as you have of other medicines that didn't help you, we will gladly give you your money back. That's certainly a square deal.

The four Hypophosphites it contains are used by leading physicians everywhere in debility, weakness and liability to disease, to tone and strengthen the nerves. Purest Olive Oil, one of the most nutritious, most-easily-digested foods known, being taken with hypophosphites, gives rich tissue nourishment to the entire system.

You who are weak and rundown, and you who are apparently well now, but are liable to suffer from cold weather ailments, use Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion and get and keep well and strong. For that tired-out run-down, nervous, emaciated debilitated—the convalescing — growing children—aged people—it is a sensible, pleasant-tasting aid to renewed strength, better spirits, glowing health. If it does not help you your money will be given back to you without argument. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain. Wm. P. Taylor, 616 King St., Alexandria, Va.

Information for all Lung Sufferers

Would you like to know more about a remedy for Lung Trouble which has brought about many complete recoveries? The makers of Eckman's Alterative are in receipt of many really wonderful reports and will be pleased to forward to you copies of original letters and also booklet on diet and proper care needed in recovering health. Investigate this case:—

1019 Susquehanna Ave., Phila., Pa.

"My Dear Sirs: For two years I was afflicted with hemorrhages of the lungs, and in February of 1902 I was taken with a severe attack of pneumonia. When I recovered sufficiently to walk about the house I was left with a frightful hacking cough, which no medicine I had taken could alleviate. It was at this time, March, 1902, that I started taking Eckman's Alterative. In a short time my cough was gone and I was pronounced well. I cannot speak too highly for the good it has done."

(Signed) HOWARD L. KLOTZ.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in rebuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

RECIPES.

Frozen Pudding.

Two cups of sugar, two eggs, one pint milk, one quart of cream, two tablespoonfuls of gelatine, a scant one-half cup flour, one-half pound conserved pineapple, a small bottle of maraschino cherries, one-half pint of sherry wine and four tablespoons of rum. Boil the milk, beat the eggs, flour and one cup of sugar together, then stir in the boiling milk. Let boil twenty minutes, take off and gelatine. After having been dissolved in a little water, set away to cool; then add the other cup of sugar, cream, rum, wine cherries (chopped in small pieces), pineapple chopped fine also, and freeze.

Virginia Plum Pudding.

One pound raisins, one-half pound currants, three cups flour, one cup suet, three eggs, tow teaspoonfuls baking powder, three-quarters cup of molasses, a ttle citron. Put the suet and fruit into the flour dry, then break in the eggs, add milk enough to make a batter stiff enough for cake. Spice to taste. Boil three hours in floured bag. This can be made in three or four puddings. For sauce: One and one-half cups of sugar, one-half cup butter creamed very light, yolks of three eggs beaten light, hree-quarters cup of boiling water. Keep hot.

Oyster Cocktail.

Five or six oysters to a cocktail, or if very large, cut in half. Take the oysters out of their own liquor and put them on ice to ge very cold. To one quart of oysters take a large half cup of tomato catsup, juice of one and one-half lemons, three dessertspoons of Worcestershire sauce and one teaspoonful of tobasco sauce, pinch of salt. Put in the oyters about fifteen minutes before serving; serve in small glasses.

Peppermints.

One pound of granulated sugar, enough water to moisten; stir for five minutes. Take off the stove and add twenty-two drops of peppermint; then heat until thick and drop on marble slab.

Pumpkin Pie.

One can of pumpkin three eggs sugar to taste, one cup of sweet milk, one teaspoonful each of allspice, cinnamon and ginger, two teaspoonfuls of flour, two teaspoonfuls melted butter into the pumpkin. Beat the eggs separately, or one; then add sugar, spices and flour, stirring thoroughly and lastly adding milk and butter. Pour mixture into pie tins previously lined with pie crust, and bake thirty minutes in a moderately hot oven.

MARRIED LYING ON SICK BED.

A. C. Braxton, of Staunton, Va., Weds Miss Mary P. Miller.

Atlantic City, Nov. 25.—Allen Caperton Braxton, member of a prominent family of Staunton, Va., married Miss Mary P. Miller yesterday while sitting up in his sick bed at a beach-front hotel here.

He is still far from being restored to health and was compelled to recline during the simple ceremony, in which Rev. Charles Martin Niles, of the Episcopal Church of the Ascension, officiated, Mrs. Joseph Wheat, of Charlottesville, Va., Clark Worthington and Mrs. Carter Braxton, of Staunton, were the only witnesses.

Mr. Braxton, who is 62 years old, arrived here early in September, suffering from a nervous breakdown. His condition grew steadily worse until early last week, when his life was despaired of.

Miss Miller hurried here as soon as his condition became serious, and was in constant attendance at his bedside. Miss Miller is about 60 years old.

BLEASE PARDONS 100.

Wants Convicts to Eat Thanksgiving Dinner at Home, He Says.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 25.—Governor Cole L. Blease added to his long list of pardons yesterday when he exercise executive clemency in one hundred cases. Twenty-eight of those pardoned were serving life terms for murder and a like number for manslaughter.

His explanation was, "I want them to eat Thanksgiving dinner at home."

Since becoming governor in 1911 Blease has pardoned 882 convicts. He said he would bring the total up to one thousand when his batch of Christmas pardons was issued.

The papers in the latest cases will be served early Wednesday so all those freed may go home by Thursday.

TURKEYS AT 28 CENTS POUND.

Market Well Supplied With Choice Poultry. Other Thanksgiving Items.

The all absorbing question as to the price of the Thanksgiving turkeys was decided today when practically all of the stores and stalls fixed the price at 28 cents per pound. This is for the undrawn dressed turkey. There were many fine specimens of the Thanksgiving bird to be seen on the benches and the dealers say that the supply is large and of unusually fine quality.

The market and grocery stores will be crowded tomorrow with people buying their dinner for the following day and they will find an excellent assortment of seasonable food. There is a plentiful spply of vegetables and fruits, and the dealers have made unusual efforts to secure the very best the market affords for their customers.

CAPTURE WILD MAN.

He Has Bees in His Leg and in His Bonnet.

Moberly, Mo., Nov. 25.—In the famous annual Missouri coon hunt here, attended by Governor Elliott W. Major and the majority of the State officials, a wild man was captured, who had lived in the woods since 1890. He had a wooden leg, which he had carved from a tree limb, and in a hole in the leg he carried bees which he had captured. He also had bees in a stove-pipe hat he wore.

A party headed by Mayor Rolla Rothwell, of Moberly, drove a wild man from the brush. He was surrounded and captured by the party and brought to camp. After he had been fed and given liquid refreshments he told the hunters his name was Thomas Siebler.

He had taken to the woods, following a disappointment in love. His clothes are of fur from rabbits, foxes, coons and possums. He has lived close to nature so long that he has developed into a bee trainer.
